
Slow and very draggy

VOICE

half loud

Oh the tired old horse can scarce-ly drag his feet, If he gets much worse He'll be too tired to eat. He's so old and stiff, he is-n't worth his keep, He would go to bed but he'd be too tired to sleep. There

Piano

half loud

Lively was a time so I am told He ran a - way with Grand - pa Cole, He smashed the bug - gy on the pole, But that was long a - go. Now the very draggy tired old horse is hap - py in his way, For he dreams he still can loud (spoken)
hear his mas - ter say, Tum tid - di - ly um bum, Gid - dap!"
loud